(Boston, MA – January 20, 2016) Several attorneys from Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor and Spearing, P.C. are proudly participating in this year's ICycle event to end homelessness. Led by shareholder John R. Felice, the Hermes Netburn team rides at 4pm on February 25th outside of Boston's One International Place.

ICycle is a series of intense spin classes held outdoors in the middle of winter. Every hour on the hour, beginning at 7am, teams ride to raise money for HomeStart, a non-profit dedicated to ending and preventing homelessness in Boston. Last year over 200 riders raised over $200,000, making a huge impact on the lives of homeless people. Over the years, ICycle has enjoyed the support of celebrities like the Bruin's Lyndon Byers, Red Sox's Lou Merloni, Janet Wu, Olympian Alice Cook, Jenny Dell, Pat the Patriot, Steve Aveson, and many, many more.
