OVERVIEW

Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing's insurance attorneys counsel some of the world's largest insurance companies, handling virtually every type of lawsuit they face. Our deep experience in the insurance industry informs the streamlined legal strategies we devise that meet our clients' individualized business directives and needs.

Known for our practical approach to resolving claims and allegations, we always assess insurance matters for the best possible outcome, recognizing that aggressively obtaining the information necessary to evaluate cases early on allows us to assess the settlement value, the costs to litigate and whether a trial meets our client's desired goals. We have the ability, experience and resources to handle claims of any size, including complex and large document matters involving multiple parties over many years.

Our experience spans virtually every area of insurance defense, directors & officer liability, bad faith, unfair practices, as well as extensive insurance coverage matters. Hermes, Netburn, O'Connor & Spearing, P.C. has the flexibility to handle cases both large and small, always striving to meet the objectives of our clients. Regardless of the matter, our goal is to always produce superior results on their behalf.
